LaVictoria, Dominican Republic

Hi! My name is Lynda Bascelli
Here I am in this picture with Catherine,
one of my favorite children in LaVictoria,
the Dominican Republic.

LaVictoria is a small town outside of Santo Domingo.

Its people are in constant need of food, clothing, medical supplies and medical care.

We also volunteered at a pediatric health clinic in LaVictoria. We spent some of our time charting growth curves for the children that attended school there.

A Church group in Tampa, Florida opened a childrens' nutritional center in LaVictoria. My companion Anita and I helped to feed and play with the children there daily.
