Las Matas de Farfan, Dominican Republic

Victoria and I worked with the Missionaries of Charity at a nutrition center in Las Matas de Farfan in the Dominican Republic.

We spent the mornings playing with the children in their outdoor play area. I am here with Soribel and José.

Other duties included changing diapers and cleaning the cribs. I am changing Antonio, who will later pour baby powder all over himself.

Pictured here is Antonio (2 ½ years) who has escaped from the dinner table.

The children are all fed at the same table, divided based upon if they can feed themselves.
