Las Matas de Farfan

Las Matas de Farfan

Summer 2000

During my stay in the Dominican Republic, I worked in a nutrition center for malnourished children. Some of the older children that I got to know in my 6 weeks, are pictured here to the left.

This is a picture of me with one of the sisters of Norberto, the person whose house I stayed in down in the Dominican Republic.

The Dominican Republic was one of the most beautiful countries that I have ever visited. Sites like this could be seen everywhere.

One day we took the older kids in Las Matas to the beach. This is a picture of them piled in the back of the truck I drove to the beach.

This is a picture of Anesca and her son Junior. Anesca is Norberto's wife, so I got to know them very well since I lived with them.
