I shall pass through
this world but once.
Any good therefore,
or any kindness I
can show toward
any human being,
let me do it now.
Let me not defer it
or neglect it,
for I shall not pass
this way again.

We visited at the nursing home every day as well as planned parties, bowling and sing-a-longs.

At the parish of San Martine, we organized games for the children and we taught English classes.
